

Thank you for being our valued customer

Documentation

2020 has been tough

Lot of companies are struggling. Fortunately we are grateful to have wonderful customers that support us. As a token of appreciation we are offering 7.5% discount on all orders place in December 2020. Hopefully this helps our customers in need to make the capital investment desperately needed to make this production process more efficient. The 7.5% discount applies to the current list price of the products.

7.5% off list price for all orders placed in December 2020. Mention discount code: THANKYOU

Please contact your factory rep to avail this discount.

We will have a modest 2% price increase in 2021. If you could make the purchase in 2020 you could potentially save more than 10%.
