OU, OSU Teams Win Competition

Press Release

Teams from the University of Oklahoma and Oklahoma State University were named first-place winners in both Graduate and Undergraduate divisions of the Donald W. Reynolds Tri-State collegiate business plan competition in Las Vegas Tuesday night. FieldFocus from OU was named Undergraduate Division winner, while Roll-to-Roll Technologies from OSU was named Graduate Division winner. Each team won $30,000. The Tri-State is a business plan competition featuring the top two winning teams in Graduate and Undergraduate Divisions from Donald W. Reynolds Governor's Cup competitions in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Nevada.